

Southeastern Massachusetts Community Concert Band

About the Band

Southeastern Massachusetts Community Concert Band (SMCCB) is a true community band, welcoming musicians of all ages and abilities. It is incorporated in the state of Massachusetts as Southeastern Massachusetts Community Wind Symphony, Inc. The band currently has about 50 members from throughout eastern Massachusetts and parts of Rhode Island. Founded 28 years ago, SMCCB is a nonprofit organization and a member of The Association of Concert Bands. Rehearsals are on Monday nights from 7:30 to 9:30 at the Community Church on Main Street in Medway. New members are always welcome. There are no auditions; the only requirements are an instrument and a love of music. For more information call 508-533-5532. Visit our web site at: www.smcws.org or www.smccb.com

Our Conductor

A distinguished and versatile educator, conductor, and musician, James O'Dell is Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs at The Boston Conservatory. His collegiate conducting tenures have included marching, pep, concert, and jazz bands; wind ensembles and brass ensembles. He is founder of the New England Collegiate Jazz Festival, Boston TubaChristmas, and co-founder of the Boston Tuba Quartet and The Brass Consortium.

As a tubist he has toured, recorded, and performed with the Ken Shaphorst Big Band, True Colors Big Band, Jazz Composers Alliance Orchestra, Darrel Katz Jazz Orchestra, Greg Hopkins Nonet, the Boston Globe Repertory Jazz Orchestra (Gunther Schuller, conductor), Orange Then Blue, and as soloist with the Harvard Summer Band. He has been a member of the faculty brass quintets at the University of Oregon and Mansfield University (PA), and principal tuba with the Eugene Symphony Orchestra.

James O'Dell holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Southern Oregon University (1978), a Master of Music in Tuba, Euphonium, and Bass Trombone Performance from the University of Oregon (1983), and doctoral studies at Arizona State University (1983-84).

Holiday Celebration

3:00 P.M.
December 19, 2004

St. John the Evangelist
Hopkinton MA

St. John the Evangelist

Welcome to our sixth annual community celebration of the holidays. We get more excited each year as more people come out to enjoy this celebration and community service. It is our wish that the peace and tranquility of the holiday season blesses you all and that your support towards the Hopkinton Food Pantry will provide a measure of relief to our neighbors who find themselves in difficulty. Please take a moment this afternoon to remember the men and women serving our country far from the comfort of our freedom and homes.

Your gift and attendance is the reward to those folks in our parish along with the members of the band who have worked hard to present today's program. The much needed school snacks and toiletries are for the Hopkinton Food Pantry which operates from the basement of Woodville Baptist Church

St. John's Parish was established in 1866. Prior to then the closest parish was in Milford. In 1849, a Protestant employer in Hopkinton called a meeting of all Roman Catholics of the town and, with a gift from the same person provided the impetus to build a church in Hopkinton. The original church was located on Cedar Street and was known as St. Malachi's. Since that modest beginning we've grown to our present facility. The Parish Center is the most recent addition which was dedicated in October 1991 by Cardinal Law. The Center is actively used by the parish for Religious Education classes, church functions and meetings. We also make it available to the community of Hopkinton for meetings of organizations that include Little League, Youth Soccer, Cub scouts, Hopkinton Women's Club and others. The town-wide flu clinic for the elderly is held here in November each year.
